3. (Unclassified - GLC) Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called and said he would like to renew his interest in [redacted] about whom he had talked with us before. I told Sourwine that being aware of his interest, I had been discussing this matter with our people today and that I was hopeful we could be of assistance to the Subcommittee in making [redacted] available to the Subcommittee under appropriate arrangements. [redacted] has cleared with [redacted] meeting with the Subcommittee and the matter has been discussed with [redacted] FE Division. It is anticipated that [redacted] will be made available to the Subcommittee. STAT STAT STAT STAT STAT STAT

4. (Unclassified - JSW) Emmett Echols, [redacted] and John S. Warner met for about three hours with Ed Braswell of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff to discuss our retirement bill. Mr. Echols gave a general briefing on the personnel aspects of the Agency which give rise to the requirement for this legislation. In general the meeting was an educational meeting for Braswell. However, he had serious concern about the absence of a clear-cut legislative standard for those who were to be covered. In addition, he queried a number of the specific points. We plan to meet again with him tomorrow. STAT

5. (Internal Use Only - JSW) Ralph Preston of House Appropriations Committee staff called on behalf of Mr. Mahon alerting us to the fact that Mr. Mahon may well ask the Director some time next week to brief the Defense Subcommittee of House Appropriations on the South Vietnam situation.

6. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met with Senator Daniel Brewster and discussed with him the retroactive pay question. The Senator was familiar with the problem, is interested in it, and will provide his support and assistance to the chairman on this matter.

7. (Internal Use Only - JGO) In Mrs. Edna Kelly's absence from the office, I made a tentative appointment to go by and see her in the morning.
